Her friends

have a joke about her:

How can you tell if Colette is lying?

Her mouth is open.

Fifteen-year-old Colette is addicted to lying. Her shrink says this is because sheâ€™s got a very bad case of Daughter-of-a-famous-movie-star Disorderâ€™ so she lies to escape out from under her motherâ€™s massive shadow. But Colette doesnâ€™t see it that way. She says she lies because itâ€™s the most fun she can have with her clothes on. Not that sheâ€™s had that much fun with her clothes off. At least not yet, anywayâ€™!

When her mother drags her away from Hollywood to spend the entire summer on location in a boring little town in the middle of nowhere, Colette is less than thrilled. But then she meets a sexy biker named Connor. Heâ€™s older, gorgeous, funny, and totally into her. So what if she lies to him about her age, and about who her mother is? I mean, she has to keep her motherâ€™s identity a secret from him. If he finds out who she really is, heâ€™ll forget all about Colette, and start panting and drooling and asking her for her motherâ€™s autograph. Just like everyone always does.

But what Colette doesnâ€™t know is that Connor is keeping a secret of his ownâ€™!
