He taught her passion.

She taught him love and broke the spell that had seemed destined to torment him forever.

Bronwyn's father had always forbidden her to go anywhere near the gypsies, but when a beautiful mare catches her eye at the fair, she can't resist having a better look at the horse ... and then taking a short ride, just to take her through her paces.

But she quickly learns her mistake when the mare carries her off to the demon castle in the Dread Woods.
